

Dieback Information Group CONFERENCE 2014

FRIDAY 18TH JULY

IN THE

KIM BEAZLEY LECTURE THEATRE, MURDOCH UNIVERSITY
MURDOCH, WESTERN AUSTRALIA

#DWGINC CELEBRATING THE INCORPORATION OF THE DIEBACK WORKING GROUP

Presentations include:

Prof David Guest from the University of Sydney
“Phytophthora diseases in the tropics”

Dr Nick Waipara from Auckland Council (New Zealand)
“Progress, Problems, People and Phytophthora; Lessons learned from kauri dieback management in New Zealand”

Lisa-Jane Moody from Rocla Quarry Products
“Managing Phytophthora Dieback within Extractive Industry: A Gaskell Ave Sand Operations case study.”

Keith Parnell from Parnell’s Nursery
“To Hell and Back: The story of our pathway to a pathogen free nursery.”

Plus many more presentations from academia, industry, community and government.

Registration now open at www.dwg.org.au, cost is $150 full price or $100 concession. Includes lunch, morning and afternoon tea and a full day of interesting presentations. Conference starts 8:30am (tea and coffee from 8am) and concludes at 4:30pm. Contact DWG Project Officer Jo Roshkov at jo.roshkov@perthregionnrm.com.

Department of Parks and Wildlife

This conference is bought to you by the Dieback Working Group Inc with sponsors The Department of Parks and Wildlife, Alcoa Australia, and funding through the Western Australian Government’s state NRM program (Project Dieback) and several other generous supporters.